What would you do, if it happened to you
A Flash Kenneth Charles is taking full advantage of his father being out of town on a business trip. As he and his friends are driving home from a party, they are followed by an unknown vehicle, which is relentless in its pursuit. What was originally believed to be a prank evolves into something much more serious and deadly. A Father Donald Charles is no ordinary father, working as an operative for a classified government agency known only as CODE. Away from his home in rural Farmville, NC, he is awaiting orders from the only man his unit responds to, the President of the United States. But when a call comes in hinting that his son might be in danger, the hunt immediately begins. A Fight As Ken and his friends realize they are not in the middle of a sick joke, the fight for their lives begins. Why are they being followed? What do the people want? And how far will a father go to save his only son?
